

President's Message

By Brad Huber

It's already October! This month we are going to be trying out our very first meeting held over a lunch hour. Other chapters in our region have been doing this with very good results. For our lunch meeting, we get the honour of hosting Erich Binder – Director at Large for ASHRAE out of Calgary, Alberta. Erich will be presenting on Cold Climate Design for this month's meeting (just in time for winter). Please note; we will be starting this meeting at 12:00PM sharp in attempt to have everyone on their way at 1:00PM.

I have recently had a request from Society to submit some photos from our chapter. The photos will be used for this year's #myashrae video. The video is posted on Youtube and shows pictures from all Regions and Chapter around the world. If anyone has any photos they'd like to share to be a part of this, please send them to me.

Historian

By Bob England

This article carries on from the article of April 2016 where we highlighted the ASHRAE Saskatchewan Chapter's year from 1964 to 1965. This month, we'll highlight the third year (1965/66) of our Chapter's existence. This is plagiarized once again from the 1993 Regina Chapter History document.

1965 – 1966: President R. J. Briggs

The annual Saskatoon meeting was held October 22 with Mr. A. N. D'Aary speaking on Specifying Air Filters. There were 44 in attendance.

Fees were raised to $25.00 with guest meals at $3.00 and drinks at 3 for $2.00.

Our local curling playoffs were set for March 12th followed by our regular meeting and a ladies night. There were 70 members and guests in attendance. George Crawford presented the Marcast Trophy for local competition. The first winners were Nelson Greene, Vic Woroby, T. Harle, and Ian Hay.

Ted McRoberts of Edwards: Industries Limited fabricated our stainless steel lecturn. Our bylaws were revised; the main change being that of changing the name to Regina Chapter [from Saskatchewan Chapter] and deleting the requirement of at least one director being from Saskatoon.

The Saskatoon Charter Night was held March 25th with many of our members attending. The Ross Trophy was held in conjunction with the charter night with our Regina team being the winners.

The CRC was held in Hamilton, Ontario with C. E. Springstein as delegate and L. T. Wilkinson as alternate. The year ended with a Golf Tournament held June 15th at Fort Qu'Appelle with a barbecue following at Don Daniel's cottage.

Board of Governors:	President:	R. J. Briggs
	Vice President:	C. E. Springstein
	Secretary:	D. D. Daniels
	Treasurer:	L. T. Wilkinson
	Director:	I. Richardson
	Director:	W. Sheppit
	Director:	J. T. Morgan
